

And All That Jazz

from the musical Chicago

Men: Come on, babe, why don't we paint the town?

All: *—*— And all that jazz

Women: I'm gonna rouge my knees and roll my stockings down

All: *—*— And all that jazz

All: Start the car, I know a whoopee spot

Where the gin is cold and the piano's hot!

It's just a noisy hall where there's a nightly brawl

And all — that — jazz .

Women: Slick your hair and wear your buckle shoes

All: *—*— And all that jazz

Men: I hear that Father Dip is gonna blow the blues

All: *—*— And all that jazz,

Women: Hold on, hon', we're gonna bunny hug

All: I bought some aspirin down at United Drug

Women: In case you shake apart and wanna brand new start

All: To do — that — jazz!

Women: Oh — — you're gonna see your Sheba shimmy shake

All: And all that jazz

Women: Oh — — she's gonna shimmy 'till her garters break

All: And all that jazz

Women: Show — — her where to park her girdle

Oh — — her mother's blood'd curdle

(If she'd hear her baby's weird)

All: For all —*— that —*— jazz
