

The Blue Bells of Scotland

This is supposed to have been composed and sung by a Mrs. Jordon, a famous London actress, who recorded it as her own handiwork in 1800. It is sometimes listed as an English song.

Handwritten musical score for a two-part setting. The top part is in G major, featuring lyrics: "oh, in my heart I wish him safe at home." The bottom part is in F major. The score includes a bass line. Chords are marked above the top staff: C, F, C, G7, C. The bass line starts with a G major chord.

Oh where, tell me where is your Highland laddie
gone?
Oh where, tell me where is your Highland laddie
gone?
He's gone with streaming banners where noble
deeds are done,
And it's oh, in my heart I wish him safe at home.

Oh where, tell me where did your Highland laddie
dwell?
Oh where, tell me where did your Highland laddie
dwell?
He dwelt in bonnie Scotland, where blooms the
sweet blue bell,
And it's oh, in my heart I lo'e my laddie well.

Oh what, tell me what does your Highland laddie
wear?
Oh what, tell me what does your Highland laddie
wear?
A bonnet with a lofty plume, and on his breast a plaid,
And it's oh, in my heart I lo'e my Highland lad.

Oh what, tell me what if your Highland lad be slain?
Oh what, tell me what if your Highland lad be
slain?
Oh, no, true love will be his guard and bring him
safe again,
For it's oh, my heart would break if my Highland lad were slain!
