

How Far is it to Bethlehem?

● Children's Song of the Nativity

Boldface words are the downbeat of the line.

Women: How far is it to Bethlehem? Not very far.
Shall we find the stable room lit by a star?
Can we see the little child, is he within?
If we lift the wooden latch, may we go in?

Men: May we stroke the creatures there, ox, ass or sheep?
May we peep like them and see Jesus asleep?
If we touch his tiny hand, will he awake?
Will he know we've come so far just for his sake?

All: Great kings have precious gifts, and we have naught.
Little smiles and little tears are all we brought.
For all weary children, Mary must weep.
Here, on his bed of straw, sleep, children, sleep.

All: God in his mother's arms, babes in the byre—
Sleep, as they sleep who find their heart's desire.
