

Enjoy Yourself

(It's Later Than You Think)

Here's a song with a message for any era and all generations: Go out and have a ball. Tommy Dorsey, with supreme bad judgment, recorded the tune in 1948 without a vocal. Nothing happened. Guy Lombardo and his saxophonist-songwriter brother, Carmen, spotted it soon after. "The lyrics are the message," said Carmen. The Lombardo band's recording of "Enjoy Yourself" scored a major success in 1950.

Brightly, like a samba

Words and Music by Herb Magidson and Carl Sigman

mf

C

G7

You work and work for gon-na take that years and years, you're o - cean trip no al-ways on the mat-ter come what go; You may; You've

Dm7

G7

Dm7

G7

Dm7

G7

C

nev - er take a min - ute off, too bus - y mak - ing dough.
got your res - er - va - tions, but you just can't get a - way. Some - Next

day, you say, you'll have your fun when you're a real - ly mil - lion- aire; Im - year for sure you'll see the world, you'll get a - round. But

F F[#]dim C/G C[#]dim Dm7 G7 C

ag - ine all the fun you'll have in your old rock - in' chair. Chorus how far can you trav - el when you're six feet un - der - ground. En - joy your - self, it's lat - er than you think! En - joy your - self, while you're still in the pink. The years go by as quickly as a wink. En -

C G7

C

C7

F

1.

F#dim C/G C#dim Dm7 G7 C

2.

Dm7 A♭7 Dm7 G7 C6

lat - er than you think. ff

mf

sffz