

LOVE LETTERS IN THE SAND

On a day like to day
We passed the time a way
Writ ing love let ters in the sand.

How you laughed when I cried
Each time I saw the tide
Take our love let ters in the sand.

You made a vow that you would al ways be true,
But some how that vow meant noth ing to you.

Now my poor heart just aches,
With ev 'ry wave it breaks
Over love let ters in the sand.

LOVE LETTERS IN THE SAND

published these verses in his New York Daily Mirror column one day in 1931. (Brother Charles helped out on the poem.) Songwriter J. Fred ("You Go to My Head") Coots liked it and wrote a melody for it. Russ Columbo and bandleader George Hall made "Love Letters in the Sand" a standard in the '30s, and Pat Boone had a major hit with it in 1957.
