

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER
Recorded by a Canadian group
The Four Lads in the '50s

January to December,
We'll have moments to remember.

The New Year's Eve we did the town,
The day we tore the goalpost down
We will have these moments to remember,

The quiet walks, the noisy fun,
The ballroom prize we almost won,
We will have these moments to remember,

Though summer turns to winter,
And the present disappears
The laughter we were glad to share
Will echo through the years,

When other nights and other days
May find us gone our sep' - rate ways.
We will have these moments to remember

Words by Al Stillman; Music by Robert Allen

A song can be nostalgic simply by association, such as a ballad that reminds you of your junior prom because it was a big hit that year. Other songs make a direct play for nostalgia—such as “Thanks for the Memory,” “These Foolish Things (Remind Me of You)” or “This Great Standard,” “Moments to Remember.” The song had plenty of competition back in 1955. Children’s voices everywhere were piping “The Ballad of Davy Crockett,” while
