

Three Coins in the Fountain

from "Three Coins in the Fountain"
Words by Sammy Cahn; Music by Jule Styne

Three American women in Rome, three charming men, three love stories, three coins in the fountain—the Fountain of Trevi—to guarantee (legend has it) a return to the Eternal City. These were the elements of the 1954 film for which Sammy Cahn and Jule Styne wrote this Oscar-winning title theme. Sung on the sound track by Frank Sinatra, the song made the Trevi Fountain one of Rome's major tourist attractions.
