

TOGETHER

We strolled the lane, to-ge-th-er

Laughed at the rain, to-ge-th-er

Sang love's re-frain, to-ge-th-er

And we'd both pre-tend, it would nev-er end.

One day we cried, to-ge-th-er

Cast love a-side, to-ge-th-er

You've gone from me, but in my mem-o-ry

We al-ways will be to-ge-th-er.

We strolled the lane, to-ge-th-er

Laughed at the rain, to-ge-th-er

Sang love's re-frain, to-ge-th-er

We knew long a-go, that our love would grow

Through storm and sun to-ge-th-er

Our hearts as one to-ge-th-er

You've gone from me, but in my mem-o-ry

We al-ways will be to-ge-th-er.

TOGETHER

Words and Music by Buddy DeSylva, Lew Brown and Ray Henderson

The collaboration of Buddy DeSylva, Lew Brown and Ray Henderson lasted only from 1925 through 1930, but those five years bore some extraordinary fruit: six Broadway shows, songs for five Hollywood pictures and nearly two dozen hit songs. Talk about togetherness! Moreover, each man was a hit songwriter on his own.

Their lovely waltz "Together," a 1928 success, was featured in the 1944 war film Since You Went Away. (Remember Claudette Colbert and Joseph Cotten and cantankerous Monty Woolley up in the attic!) Its nostalgic quality of a peaceful yesterday gained it renewed popularity in a war-torn world.
